Stamping on the Back Porch

Supplies:

The three pieces will layer like this.

Now, just tear. Notice the you will tear, pulling the middle piece towards yourself so that you get that nice torn edge look on the part that will show on the card.

Tear both panels, then tear off about half of the middle section so there will be less paper to roll up.

Roll up that middle section and glue to the cardstock. Attach to the card front.
